Quick reference guide for Lifeline Digital (022-25-9xx)

Yellow Extra button

Green Cancel button

Red Alarm button

Enable programming mode:

a)  Press and hold the green Cancel button, then press and hold the red Alarm button and the yellow Extra button.

b)  Release all buttons when the device emits a rising sound signal and announces "Programming mode",

The LED indicators start chaser sequence and the button LEDs flash in unison.

c)  You can now:

- Adjust speaker volume, page 1
- Adjust LED, page 1
- Activate Radio test mode, page 1
- Check cellular signal, page 2
- Connect a peripheral, page 2
- Disconnect a peripheral, page 2

Adjust speaker volume:

a)  Press and hold the yellow Extra button.

b)  When the device announces "One", release the button.

c)  Adjust speaker volume:

- Press the red Alarm button to increase volume.

- Press the yellow Extra button to decrease volume.

d)  Press the green cancel button to save settings and exit.

Adjust LED intensity:

a)  Press and hold the yellow Extra button.

b)  When the device announces "Two", release the button.

c)  Adjust LED intensity :

- Press the red Alarm button to increase LED intensity.

- Press the yellow Extra button to decrease LED intensity.

d)  Press the green cancel button to save settings and exit.

Radio test:

a)  Press and hold the yellow Extra button.

b)  When the device announces "Three", release the button.

c)  When the device announces "Radio test mode Activate transmitter now", activate/trigger the peripheral you want to test:

- 🔊 ● Connected and battery is OK.
- 🔊 ●● Not connected and battery is OK.
- 🔊 ▬ Connected but battery is low.
- 🔊 ▬ ▬ Not connected and battery is low.

d)  Press the green cancel button to exit.

Check cellular signal:

a)  Press and hold the yellow Extra button.

b)  When the device announces "Four", release the button.

The device announces the current cellular signal strength on a scale of 1 to 5:

- "Cellular signal strength is One" for poor signal.
- "Cellular signal strength is Five" for excellent signal.

c)  Press the green cancel button to exit.

Connect a peripheral:

a)  Press and hold the red Alarm button.

b)  When the device announces "Auto pairing mode", you can either:

- Release the button to enable auto paring mode.

  In auto paring the peripheral is stored in the first available radio sensor position.
- Continue to hold the button until the device announces the number of the radio sensor position you want to select, then release the button.

c)  When the device announces "Activate transmitter now", activate/trigger the peripheral.

d)  Press the green cancel button to save settings and exit.

Disonnect a peripheral:

a)  Press and hold the red Alarm button.

b)  When the device announces "Auto pairing mode", you can either:

- Release the button to enable auto paring mode.
- Continue to hold the button until the device announces the number of the radio sensor position you want to select, then release the button.

c)  Press the yellow extra button.

- If you have selected auto pairing mode, the device announces: "Erasing. Activate transmitter now".

- If you have selected a specific radio position, the device announces "Erasing" and disconnects the peripheral.

d)  Press the green cancel button to save settings and exit.